Mr. K. M. Ibrahim.—Sir, I want to ask whether there are any roads there through which human beings pass.

Rao Sahib Mr. T. V. Kasturi Ranga Ayyar.—Chennamangalam is full of human beings and they pass through them.

Mr. K. M. Ibrahim.—The question is not clear. What is the doubt you have?

Rao Sahib Mr. T. V. Kasturi Ranga Ayyar.—It is only a supplementary question that I can answer. The question presumes that the foot paths in Chennamangalam are not all porambokes. That question is not capable of understanding. If the question refers to such and such foot paths it would be quite clear. The second sentence shows why the question is not clear.

Mr. K. M. Ibrahim.—Why there are no porambokes there?

Rao Sahib Mr. T. V. Kasturi Ranga Ayyar.—I do not admit of it.

Mr. K. M. Ibrahim.—Then the question is quite clear.

Single crop lands assessed for occasional Second crop.

74. Mr. Joseph Petta.—Will the Government be pleased to state:—

(a) how many acres of single crop lands were, on an average, assessed for occasional second crop during the five years from 1102 to 1106 and what amount was annually collected on that account;

(b) whether any cases have come to the knowledge of the Government during the five years from 1102 to 1106, of such assessment having given to the subordinate revenue officers opportunities for illegal gratifications?

Rao Sahib Mr. T. V. Kasturi Ranga Ayyar.—

	Year.	Extent. Acre	Cent	Amount charged.
(a)	1102	4995	61½	6561/0/11
	1103	6135	39½	7888/3/7
